Wainwright visited during the afternoon and carried away the victory after a good exhibition of baseball.

In the early part of the evening a good game of football was played, the particulars of which are reported in the football column.

A dance at night proved more than ordinarily enjoyable owing to the combination of music being played by a joint orchestra from Wainwright and from Provost. A misunderstanding had arisen, in consequence of which the guests had more than ordinarily good music, at the expense of the C.W.I.

The C.W.I. gave us a splendid day.

The Editor's Table

The first sign of the coming referendum is shown by the visit of the organizing secretary, Rev. N. R. T. Braa, of Viking, to Chauvin and district, over the past week end. He is looking for big results from the meeting on July 3rd, in Chauvin.

There is no doubt that the liquor forces will spare no effort to regain the privileges they once enjoyed. Privileges markedly profitable to themselves, and disastrous to society as a whole. It is entirely within the range of possibility that the liquor interests may win back the popular vote. Not particularly because public sentiment favors them. But simply because of the large number of folks who entertain only a "passive" interest.

For our own part, we have always disliked the "rapid" temperance talker, and possibly always will. However, when it came to a showdown in the recent vote, we were forced by the thought that we did not wish to leave temptation in the path of our sons to vote against the liquor. We will do the same again, and more so after having observed the good results of the banishing of the bar.

We were informed that last year among the regular visitors to Salt Lake there were a number who did "their bit" in the way of making improvements, and the other "chores" inseparable from any place of resort. They worked willingly, hard and well.

—But strange to say, these willing workers were only a small minority. And stranger yet those fellows who walked around with a proud strut, were the individuals who had not chipped in a dollar, nor turned a hand to help.

The Chauvin Agricultural Society decided to ask the municipal council to publish a list of the proposed work to the roads in the district during the right direction. It will enable both present year. This is a step in the council and ratepayers to more thoroughly appreciate what can and what cannot be done. A little authentic information is the soundest basis for confidence and co-operation that we know of.

In another column of this issue will be found a news item dealing with the struggle for newsprint. In order to maintain a regular supply of paper on which to print The Chauvin Chronicle, we have found it necessary to buy ahead of our needs, and carry a large reserve stock. We have, at the time of writing over $100 invested in newsprint, and only thus are we able to maintain regular service. The price of newsprint is steadily rising, and will continue to do so.

It is only a matter of a few weeks before we will be forced to ask $2.00 per year for our paper. In the meantime we are still selling our paper for the old sum of $1.50 per year.

The day has arrived when newspapers and magazines that are run as honest business concerns must insist upon cash in advance from their subscribers. Publications which have the advantage of party funds behind them may possibly be able to continue sending out their copies without payment.

The Chauvin Chronicle, has in common with other papers, been forced to insist on cash in advance. We mention this because there are some twenty names due to be cut off the list next week, unless sooner paid, or arranged for. It is not intended to cast any reflection upon those who are cut off; it being simply a business necessity.

The following resolution was adopted by the meeting, and the Secretary instructed to send a copy to the Ribstone Municipal Council.

Resolved—As good roads are essential for a progressive farming district, and as the roads in this district require immediate improvement.

It is resolved that this Society instruct our Secretary to write to the Municipal Council of Ribstone, requesting that they give in detail in the local newspaper a list of the proposed work to be done on the roads here this year.

Referendum Campaign Organization Mtg.

An organization meeting was held on behalf of the Alberta Referendum Campaign Committee, in the Westminster Church, Monday afternoon.

Possibly owing to lack of publicity and short notice there was not a fully representative gathering present.

It was decided to hold a public meeting in the Oddfellow Hall, Saturday, July 3rd, at which the Rev. N. R. T. Braa, of Viking, will again attend and give a clear and full outline of the work to be accomplished in preparation for the coming referendum.

The organization will be completed at this meeting. In the meanwhile Mr. A. E. Keith is acting pro tem. as president and Rev. W. Miller as secretary.

Editorial*A Colossal Blunder

"A colossal blunder." That is our definition of the new budget.

One fine morning, some three weeks ago, the new scheme came into force, like a mushroom, in the night.

An Intelligent Public

It appears that the Government of Canada has such an high opinion of the intelligence of its people, that it judged that eight millions of them, spread thin across a continent, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, would be instantly in possession of a full knowledge of that which they are now some three weeks later, seeking to understand and amend, themselves.

Make Statement of Need

There is no doubt in the minds of any of us that the government is hard pressed for money, and is confronted with a supreme difficulty in financing the various activities it is its lot to perform. This being so, we suggest that the government would have been well advised to take the public into its confidence more fully.

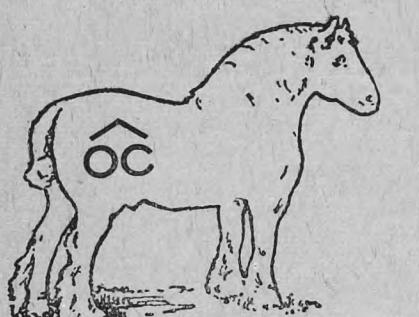

Suppose for a minute, that the government facing the difficult question, had had the courage of presenting a flat statement of its financial needs to its citizens; saying to them in fact, we need just so much money, and we must have it from you.

Let Every One Pay Share

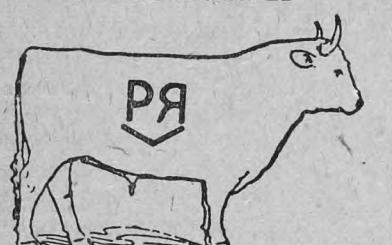

We propose to get this amount by taxing every adult a certain amount, and the balance we will obtain by an income tax, and the ordinary sources of revenue already in existence.

A Basis of Confidence

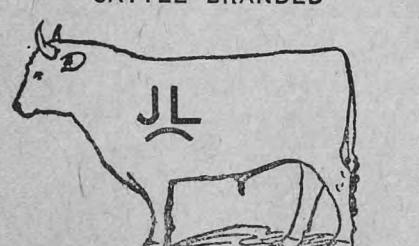

In taking such a course as this the people would have had a direct knowledge of the needs of the government—a basis for confidence. We submit that never before, in the history of our Dominion, was there a greater readiness on the part of the people to pay an increased taxation. None of us by choice pay taxes, none of us are willing to pay taxes un-necessarily, and all of us like to feel that the taxes we do pay reach the treasury.

Municipal Officers Can Collect
From Floating Population

Throughout the Dominion there exists a chain of civic, and municipal organizations, acting though these the Dominion government would have a complete assessment of the people. Through these officers the government could collect the tax. Through them it could collect from that portion of our people who are not definitely located, the floating population. For these, a simple registration system by card, would need to be in operation, and enforced by it being made unlawful to pay wages to such unless he produced his card. By some such means every citizen would be at once compelled to pay his, or her, share, and to be assured that everyone was paying their share.

A Graduated Tax

"No citizenship without taxation" is a perfectly fair proposition.

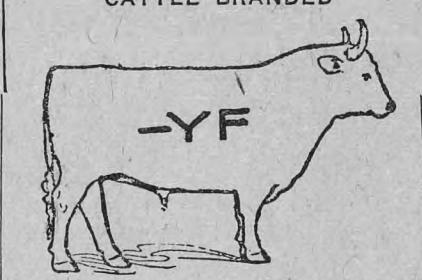

Whilst it is true that all should pay their share, it is also true that some are more able to pay, and could, by reason of their greater riches pay a larger amount, without incurring any hardship upon them. To reach this it is necessary that the income tax be levied, and levied with an increasing pressure upon the increased amount of wealth.

People Ready For Direct Taxation

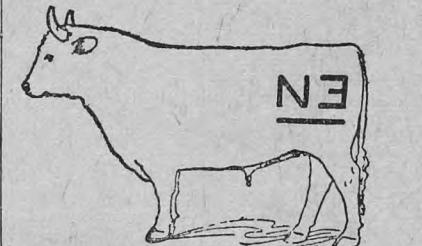

We would not go so far as to suggest that tariff duties be removed at the present time. However, one of the results of the campaign for the removal of the tariff, has been that the average man has prepared himself to face direct taxation.

Present Scheme Breeds Discontent

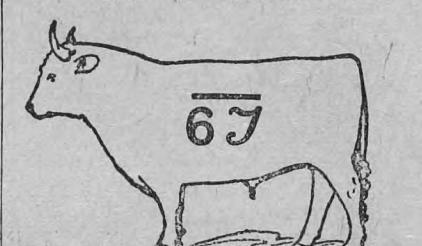

Instead of taking the people into confidence, and having a definite understanding, the government has set a thousand different traps throughout which the people are taxed. Instead of paying a known sum once a year, the people are asked to pay an unknown amount—perhaps a hundred times a year. Instead of creating confidence in trade, the government has set buyer against seller. It has made every storekeeper and vendor an unwilling tax-collector, an object of suspicion by the buyer.

In a small trading centre like our own every business man is compelled against his will, and to his detriment to act as tax collector. And everyone who purchases has, almost without exception to pay tax on his purchase

Will Retard Home Building

Will such measures, we ask, tend to create any desire on the part of our young men and women to build up homes, and bear children for the benefit of the state, and the preservation of the race. We think not, but rather believe that it will be a distinct deterrent, and more especially so in the urban centres.

Our Indictment

Because the government have failed to take the people into their confidence, because they have inflicted a miserable, petty annoying and ever recurring system of collecting an unknown amount for an unknown need, because they have created an host of unwilling taxcollectors, because they have made these men taxcollectors to their detriment, and finally because the taxes bear more heavily upon those less able to pay, we call the Budget a "Colossal Blunder."

Let us not forget that the Chauvin celebration is approaching and that merchants and citizens should start preparing for it. There is probably no single feature that does so much for Chauvin as the celebration. It will be better than ever this year. It always is.

Six weeks ago most people were using the language of blue ruin on account of the late spring. Old timers' advice was not to be too hasty in judging how these season would turn out.

The latest crop report of the season is to the effect that never since 1904 has the condition of wheat been so favorable as this season, with the single exception of 1912. Nor has there been any large decrease in acreage. The area sown to wheat is estimated at 15,300,000 acres, accompanied with 16,085,000 in 1919.

The way to succeed is to advertise. There is scarcely a notable commercial success that has not been built upon the solid foundation of advertising, and, likewise, practically all good, clean, honest business that advertises legitimately is successful. Ra-r:JQ.yd

No one speaks now of the new imposts as luxury taxes. The purchasers of articles for household use, and of clothing, know them to be taxes upon necessities as well as upon luxuries.

When a town is alive it is not only because it has live business men, but because it has business men who pull together, who do not allow their prejudices to get in the way and block the wheels of progress, who invest wisely and are not carried away by the fads and fancy of cranks. There are many such towns in the west, and that is one cause of their development.

During the intervening weeks between now and haymaking season, many farmers will be busy breaking and preparing new soil. The development of this district is exceeding the most sanguine expectations and the end is not yet.

Why Pull Down?

When you pull down the town in which is your home, you are pulling down yourself, and when you build up you are building up yourself and your neighbor. Try and banish from your mind the mistaken idea that all good things are away off in some other locality. Give your town all the praise which you possibly can give. It will do you no harm and will cost you nothing; and above all patronize your home institutions, including the printing office.

Copies of the Chauvin Fair Prize List can now be obtained at Chronicle

Mend Your Wavs

During the past week a number of the more enterprising citizens have cleaned their yards of refuse, which not only adds to the general appearance of the town, but adds to the healthfulness of the burg also.

Still, considerable remains to be done in this line by the less enterprising citizens. Refuse is not only most disagreeable to the eye, but most unwholesome. Just what germs may be harbored in the debris no one knows. Warm weather will start decomposition; damp debris of any kind will breed flies and mosquitoes. A host of diseases may lurk in dark corners. The only safe way, from a sanitary point of view, is to keep the rake busy and use the best disinfectant at your command.

What Will The Harvest Be?

Just at this season of the year the question of what the next few months will produce is uppermost in the minds of all, not only the farmer, but townspeople as well, and we may be pardoned for again referring to crop conditions.

Seeding is finished throughout this district, and much of the grain is showing green blades over the broad acres. The prevailing crops are wheat and oats. And, according to competent farmers who have resided in the district a number of years, we are today faced by the brightest outlook in many seasons. From every nook and corner come reports of ideal soil conditions and excellent growing weather.

Furthermore, the month of June being the one month of the year on base, having started off on the right foot, there is reason to feel that the 1920 harvest may turn out to be one of the best on record, barring of course, early frosts, hail and smut.

Calgary Exhibition

The prize list for the Calgary Exhibition may be obtained by writing to E. L. Richardson, Manager, Calgary. The Fair dates this year are June 26th to July 3rd and entries close on June 14th. Over $7,000 has been added to the prize list for the live stock department for this year, making the total amount offered for all departments now $34,500.

The new hundred thousand dollar cattle stable and judging pavilion will be used for the first time this year and will add greatly to the comfort and convenience of the exhibitors.

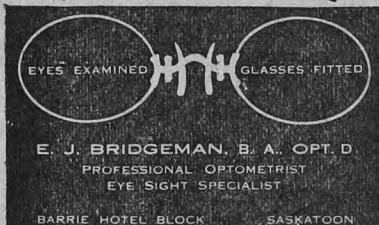

Calgary is fortunate this year in being able to secure Locklear, possibly the most daring acrobatic performer in the world. He does acrobatic stunts all over an aeroplane and finishes his act by changing from one machine to another in full flight in mid-air. This is positively the greatest attraction that can be obtained for any exhibition.

Auto Polo will also provide many thrills for the fair visitors, while the musical programme will be provided by Canada's crack military band, the 48th Highlanders, of Toronto.

Special passenger rates will be in force for the Calgary Exhibition from all points in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia east of Golden on the Main line and Nelson on the Crow's Nest.

CENTRAL B. C.ATTRACTS SETTLERS

That Central British Columbia is proving attractive to settlers coming to Canada as well as those moving from one province to another, is well established by the following: For the first four months of this year 336 pre-emption records have been allowed in the districts contiguous to the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, including Fort Fraser 112; Fort George and Peace River 115; Hazelton 25; Skeena 16; Cariboo 60. By far the largest percentage of pre-emption records issued by the province are granted for these districts, while it may also be interesting to note that April of this year for the whole province totalled 142 pre-emptions as against 75 in 1918.

ARTLAND ARGUS

Mrs. Ross has left for a visit to Edmonton.

Mr. D'Albertanson of Chauvin was a visitor last week.

The McInnis dance at Brady was a great success.

The attendance was large, and everybody came away with that pleasant feeling of satisfaction that a dance at Brady always seems to induce.

Artland was not backward in adding its quota to the festive crowd.

Many men and women interested in educational affairs, are urging that the advantage of the "Movies" have not been fully recognized as a practical aid to stimulating youthful imaginations, and they should be introduced into the schoolhouse.

Quite a novel idea that!

But if it has the anticipated effect on the young, it decidedly appears to work well with the "old," as the following little story, which reaches us from Edmonton, clearly demonstrates.

An aged couple entered a show: On the Screen is a cowboy scene—Pushing to the front, the old woman whispers, don't go forward "Bill, the dust them horses are kicking up is fierce, I shall spoil my new dress."

Notwithstanding a sulky thermometer, the Stanmore Tennis Club opened the season on Friday evening by a series of games that afforded enjoyment to all present. After the play most of the crowd adjourned to Brady Good for the Stanmore people.

We understand that a farewell dance is being held at Stanmore School on Friday the 18th instant, as a farewell to Miss Hamilton, who we regret to hear is leaving this district.

BATTLE HILL A.A.

The preliminary arrangements for Battle Hill A.A. picnic and dance are proceeding very satisfactorily. It is intimated that Mr Ralph Knutson and Mr. W. Gilbertson will be playing together at the dance. Mr Knutson will favor the audience with vocal selections, accompanied by the ukulele.

Farming Problems

Hon. C. M. Hamilton, Minister of Agriculture, in the course of a brief address at the opening proceedings, stated that these Better Farming tramps had always been very popular and had accomplished a great deal of good and there was on every hand a keen demand for this agricultural exhibition on wheels. Every man "who takes up a public position has, or should have, a number of ideas which he wants to have put in operation. Accordingly there are one or two matters, one or two lines, which I am working to develop.

"Saskatchewan agriculture has been faced with many difficulties during the past few years. Grain growing has remained the main feature, and our products in this connection have obtained a high reputation in face of the keenest competition. We have now, however, reached the point where farming must be more than grain growing. Summer fallowing has been of incalculable value to this province, yet this very system tends to set up conditions favorable to soil drifting. The most likely solution that I can see is that we must go in more for grasses and hay, which means more live stock, which in its culture.

"The dry conditions," went on Mr. Hamilton, "of the past few years have been very serious and discouraging and I propose to call together the best men in Western Canada, and after this conference I shall be much disappointed if some better and safer method of agriculture to combat these dry conditions, cannot be solved."

New Trains Between
Winnipeg, Vancouver

westbound as "The National." The equipment, in addition to the usual mail, baggage and express cars will consist of colonist cars, first class coaches, tourist cars, standard sleeping cars, dining cars and compartment-observation cars. The passenger equipment is of the finest and every facility has been provided to furnish the highest degree of comfort to the patrons of these trains.

A very desirable feature of this service is that trains will operate over the shortest possible route, namely Grand Trunk Pacific railways between Winnipeg and Edmonton thence Canadian National Railways between Edmonton and Vancouver.

The necessity of establishing such a service has been demonstrated owing to the ever increasing popularity of the route covered by those two lines and the schedule has been so arranged that stops are made at only the more important points, for the purpose of best serving the hurried business man who desires to make a transcontinental trip in the shortest possible time and also ensures the tourist and pleasure-seeker of an opportunity to visit the Pacific Coast, or westerners to visit Eastern business centres and resorts and return within the usual vacation time.

The desire of the management of these railways is to provide service that will appeal to all classes, and accommodation has been so provided, and in addition thereto this service will afford patrons of these trains an opportunity to see the development in Western Canada not only from an agricultural but also from a scenic standpoint.

Football Notes

Airlie and Chauvin met on June 10th at the Women's Institute Sports. Chauvin loaned Airlie half their backs and a goal keeper in the first half and they certainly put up a good game.

Chauvin securing only one goal during this period. z z z z z z z

On changing ends Chauvin played their full team and quickly increased their lead by three more goals over the final score bring four to nil.

For Airlie Scott as outside left was their best forward, Mathieson was good in spots but should get the ball out more often to the wing men, whilst Scott was inside left was fast and played well, Leon Smith worked hard but would not keep his place, seeming to think he had to check every player on the field. Farrell put up a good game on the defence, as did also D. Hood and A. Petrie who played back until the arrival of the other players.

The Chauvin forwards shewed more combination and the front rank now seemed to be O. K. but would get more goals if they would shoot often and not bore in too close. The defense did all that was asked of them in a workmanlike manner.

Chauvin will journey to Wainwright on Wednesday, June 16th—weather permitting—to give Wainwright a return match on their grounds.

The committee in charge of the St Jean Baptiste Celebration are putting up a prize for football on June 24th, and we hope to see Manitou Lake, Irie, Prosperity and Wainwright in on that date. Mr. Artland Billy Wright will please note, and we may get that long promised game—How about it, Billy?

Baseball Notes

Wainwright visited Chauvin between trains on the W. L. holiday and gave a very good account of themselves as far as regards baseball. They finished up on the long end of a 4-3 score. Chauvin played very good ball for the first two innings but fell down hopelessly after. The game was delayed starting by the

Now next game we want to see Chauvin wins no more losses. Take after the fotball team and get into the winning streak. by—

Local Notes Of Interest

Road work has begun in the Killarney district and Councillor Doucette is proving himself to be a live wire, by showing good judgement in getting after the worse places, on the main trails to town. He has also been instrumental in getting a temporary places, until the road allowance is put in shape. Also for the convenience of those having business at the Killarney Schoolhouse, (the trail to which from both the high and low roads is submerged badly,) he has given the travelling public a trail through his purchased farm, with easy to open gates. This latter fact being much appreciated by the women folks who have to open and shut them.

Publishers Fight To Save Their Papers

Newspaper Being Sent to United States, While Canadians Are Suffering

Ottawa, June 11—(Canadian Press)—While the stocks of Canadian newsprint companies are soaring as much as ten points in a day, reflecting the unprecedented prosperity of the Canadian newsprint industry, a group of Canadian publishers are still in Ottawa struggling to prevent the extinction of their newspaper properties through inability to get newsprint supplies in a country that is exporting six times as much newsprint as is required by domestic consumers.

The newsprint formerly supplied to these publishers has been diverted to United States. It represents an addition of only one per cent, to the 650,000 tons now being exported annually to that country, but it is the life blood of the Canadian daily newspapers from whom it has been taken.

No question of prices is involved, as the Canadian publishers are quite willing to pay the current contract prices for export to foreign countries.

The present crisis has been precipitated by the actions of a very small minority among the newsprint manufacturers of Canada. The others are continuing, without question, the supplies of their Canadian customers, but are either unable or unwilling to take care of other Canadian daily newspapers whose supplies have been cut off. An impasse has been reached and apparently nothing short of legislation conserving the domestic requirements, will prevent the extinction of newspapers of Canada.

Recent Alberta Legislation

12.—AN ACT TO AMEND THE MUNICIPAL DISTRICT ACT

Councillors may be paid for fifteen days spent in laying out and inspecting municipal work instead of for ten days as formerly. Any member or members of a council appointed a deputation to attend to matters affecting the district may be paid actual expenses. The provision giving the Minister power to dismiss a council has been struck out.

The treasurer is required to post a complete voters' list in his office, and a copy of the list for each polling division in such division.

The council may make an annual grant or guarantee to a duly licensed doctor to induce him to settle and practice in the district of an amount not to exceed $2,000.

The council may make a grant up to $200 to assist in paying expenses of investigating the possibilities of irrigation.

Full, but simple provisions are made for the taking of lands for roads or other public purposes. The procedure is similar to that followed by the Department of Public Works.

The council is given power to determine by resolution from time to time with whom animals distrained may with the necessity of changing the by-law. Animals not released from pound within ten days after last notice may be sold. Where the proceeds of sale do not pay the poundkeepers' costs, the district shall pay the balance due.

The council is made liable for due provision for the relief of the poor and the care and treatment of the needy sick who are resident, that is, who have had their homes in the district for at least three successive months. If aid is given to any person who is not a resident, but temporarily in the district, the council may collect the cost of such aid from the municipality of which such person was a resident at the time. Should the council place any sick person in a hospital which receives aid from the Province or where it can be proven that it was necessary that any resident of the district should be cared for and treated, the district must pay the actual expense incurred by the hospital except medical and surgical fees. The needy are the same in Town, Village, Municipal District and Improvement District Acts.

For the purpose of equalization of assessments in the Province, the assessor of every municipal district shall, in the year 1920 and every fifth year thereafter, assess the lands in the said district by valuation, and immediately upon completion of the assessment roll in said year and every fifth year thereafter shall forward to the department of Municipal Affairs a statement showing the total assessed value of the land in the municipal district, and the Assessment Equalization Board appointed under the provisions of the Supplementary Revenue Act shall, upon such information and after making such inquiry as it may deem advisable, confirm the said total assessed value as the equalized assessment of the said municipal district, or shall fix such other amount as the said equalized assessment of the said municipal district, or shall fix such other amount as so confirmed or fixed shall, except as in subsection (2) hereof provided, be the local assessed value of the said municipality for the year 1921 and next equalized assessment has been made. Upon advice from the Minister of said amount, in every case in which the Board does not confirm the total assessed value as reported to the Department of Municipal Affairs by the assessor it shall be the duty of the assessor immediately to proportionately raise or lower the assessment of all lands within the district so that the total value of the lands so raised or lowered shall be equal to the equalized assessment so fixed by the said Board, and the assessed value of all lands so determined shall, subject to appeal, be the values for any purpose under and Act whatsoever requiring the taxation of land according to value; (3) provided that where, after equalization by the Board, the assessment in any municipality in any year in which a general assessment is not being made is varied under the provisions of subsection (4) of Section 251 of the Act, the total equalized assessment of such municipality as last fixed by the Board shall be varied accordingly, and a statement of the increased or decreased assessment shall be sent to the Department of Municipal Affairs immediately upon completion of such assessment.

The statement of the annual estimates when made up must be recorded in the minutes of the council.

Forfeited lands may be sold, leased or otherwise dealt with by the Council without approval of or reference to the Minister.

"Boy, will you sell me that string of rabbits you are carrying?"

"No but I'll take yer pitcher holdin' it fer fifty cents."

"Yes," said old Uncle Eben, who just returned from a trip to California, "we experienced one pretty severe earthquake—but I must say I rather enjoyed it. It was the first thing that happened since Polly and I were married that she didn't think I was to blame for."

Export Act In Effect

Exportation of liquor from the province on a commercial scale is a thing of the past, with the closing of the liquor warehouses enforced by the attorney-general's department and all stocks stored are now under the direct supervision of the provincial police.

At the time of the final extension of time granted by the attorney-general to liquor warehouses terminated, about thirty-five commercial export agencies were still in business in the province, not having disposed of their stocks before the act prohibiting the export of liquor from the province or the maintenance of a liquor warehouse therein without a license for the purpose being obtained from the dominion government. Ottawa apparently took the stand that no license would be so granted unless a recommendation to this effect has been sent by Hon J. R. Boyle, or is likely to be sent.

The liquor export houses which closed their doors have been busy taking stock and it is shown that large quantities of liquor are still on hand throughout the province. It is not the intention of the provincial vendor's department to take over this liquor and accordingly the stores are being kept under lock and key of the provincial police. The supplies will be shipped out by the agencies under the personal direction and supervision of the police, the majority of the agencies moving to Saskatchewan and British Columbia. It is said that many firms have stocks on hand ranging from two carloads upwards.

or reduce his live stock. Large shipments of live stock were sent to market from this area during the late summer and fall months. Feed for the balance of the stock was arranged for in northern Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and eastern Canada. As early as October hay began moving to southern Alberta and a steady supply was kept up through the whole winter and at no time throughout the season was there any serious shortage except in a few small districts. The result in southern and eastern Alberta has been that the loss in cattle by reason of the reduction of stocks and foresight in the purchase of feed is not particularly heavy.

Enquiries respecting losses have been sent to a large number of farmers and crop reporters throughout the province. The replies indicate that the losses range from nothing at all in some districts to twenty-five per cent. in others. Department officials have made enquiries throughout the country and from information received from all sources, the department concludes that the loss has been about ten per cent over the areas subject to feed shortage, that is Southern Alberta, and parts of Central Alberta, but on account of the steady reduction last summer of stock going into winter in loss areas and the consequent increase in the number of areas with sufficient feed, the losses in relation to the whole cattle stock of the province seven or eight per cent. This does not include the loss in spring calves.

The situation with respect to horse stock is somewhat different. The dry season experienced in southern Alberta left the horses in a thin condition entering winter. Horses which had been accustomed to running out in previous winters were turned out in ranges on which the grass was short and the water scarce. The winter closed down rapidly and much earlier than usual with the result that the horse stock suffered seriously during the first two months of winter. In the central and northern portions of the province there has not been any special loss in horses but on account of the general feed shortage horses are thinner in flesh than usual.

Legal Subdivisions Twelve (12), Thirteen (13), and Fourteen (14); North-West Quarter of legal subdivision Eleven (11); and North Half of North-East Quarter of said legal subdivision Eleven (11) of Section Thirty (30), Twp. Forty-Four (44), Rge. Two (2), West of 4th Meridian, excepting thereout land covered by water of Cameron Lake; also excepting mines and minerals. The above land containing 114.20 Acres.

Term of sale to be ten per cent. cash at the time of sale and the balance according to the terms and conditions to be made known at the time of sale or upon application to the vendor's solicitors.

The above property will be offered for sale subject to sealed reserved bid and free from all encumbrances, save a first mortgage for $1,000, due January 1st, 1923, to the Toronto General Trusts Corporation, with interest at eight per cent, from 1st January, 1920 and taxes for the current year.

The vendor is informed that the above property is situated about nine miles from the Town of Ribstone, and two miles from a school and Post Office. The soil is rich black loam with clay subsoil and one hundred acres have been under cultivation. One hundred acres are fenced all around and the balance partly fenced. There is situated thereon a frame house 14 x 16, with an addition 8 x 20, and a lumber barn 16 x 52. There is a well 30 feet deep.

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to Messrs. Woods, Sherry, Collision & Field, 9th Floor McLeod Building, Edmonton, Alberta.

Dated at Edmonton, in the Province of Alberta, this 12th day of May, A.D. 1920.

Secure Hay Permits

The pressing shortage of hay during the past season, as well as somewhat similar experiences during other recent years should convince every farmer in the west that as a whole we do not carry on hand sufficient stock of good fodder.

Farmers who live close enough to wild-hay lands to enable them to cut hay therefrom should act early this year in the securing of hay permits from the owners. During years of feed shortage, persons who need to cut hay usually begin action to secure the permits too late to secure best results. Even though the hay may not be needed next winter, the average farmer would be well advised to carry over a stack or two of hay from year to year to meet the season of real shortage when it does come.

Stock Weathered

Severe Winter

The winter just past was one of the most trying on live stock in the history of the province. The prairie area in general went into the winter very short of feed. The balance of the province including central and northern Alberta had sufficient feed for an ordinary winter. High prices offered for hay and sheaves induced some of the farmers to sell some of their feed early in the winter to the farmers in the prairie country. Had the winter and spring proved to be an ordinary one, there would still have been enough feed to carry the stock in northern and central Alberta. Early in March it became evident that a good many farmers in this territory would experience a feed shortage due to quite unusual conditions and they suffered considerable losses. Some difficulty was experienced in securing rapid movement of hay from eastern Canada to the central and northern parts of the province during the early stage of this emergency. A little later, however, free movement was secured and the situation was materially relieved.

In the southern and eastern portions of the province conditions were somewhat different. It was evident in the early fall to the prairie farmer that he must provide feed for the winter
